RE: Alamo Transformer Supply Co.
P.O. Box 39908
San Antonio, Texas 78218

The Gary Job Corps Center Facilities Management Department has used the above company for several years as a repair and rebuild agency for power line transformers used at the center.

The work produced by this company has always been of the highest quality and their reputation has always been unquestionable.

During the years of doing business with them there has never knowingly been any PCB transformer shipped to them for repair and there has certainly never been any PCB oil transferred to them for disposal.
